REHEARSAL

METEHAN ÖZCAN 12.10-25.11.2023 VERSUS ART PROJECT

CURATOR: MERVE ELVEREN

“To appear like others actually suits the flâneur. After all, thanks to this anonymity and change of attire, he can enter and exit any place he wants without being noticed, and can observe in any way he desires... There is no place forbidden to him in spatial, moral, or cultural terms.”*

REHEARSAL

The word rehearsal, encompassing meanings such as ‘to test,’ ‘to confirm,’ ‘to put to the test,’ ‘to try,’ and ‘to examine,’ is rooted in the Latin verb probare. The first three meanings are based on the preparation for a likely experience - a kind of inspection; closely related to repetition. While repetitions may show similarities, each one is unique. The meanings of ‘to try’ and ‘to examine’ distance the word from connotations of control and repetition; they correspond to the ability for careful observation, flexibility, and being able to adapt as needed. Considering the processes it has gone through until it gained its current uses and the meanings it encompasses, it can be said that rehearsal is still in a continuous state of transformation: open to rethinking and rearrangement.

Metehan Özcan’s exhibition Rehearsal at Versus Art Project offers a comprehensive overview of Özcan’s practice. The new productions spread across different rooms of the exhibition space, infiltrating between the artist’s past works, works of other artists, Özcan’s archive, and personal traces from the Istanbul-Ankara-Izmir periods. A photo from 1978, stacked images, a bathroom tile, room keys, hotel room photographs, anonymous spaces - familiar places, concealed memories, visions for the future... The juxtaposition of works and objects in Rehearsal forms a bridge between the private and the public.

Rehearsal is constructed as a memory space that is constantly dispersed and reassembled, revealing Özcan’s thought processes, rather than being a personal exhibition. Current works and those unearthed from the archive, as reference points, allow for a reinterpretation of the artist’s practice and the emergence of invisible narratives. The exhibition can also be seen as an open studio. The room where Özcan conducts his work, by piling it up in the space, creates a space where the image is experienced through different presentations and display forms, continuing the production within the exhibition space.

PROVA

‘Test etmek’, ‘teyit etmek’, ‘sınamak’, ‘denemek’ ve ‘incelemek’ anlamlarını barındıran prova sözcüğünün kökeni, Latince probare fiiline dayanır. Kelimenin ilk üç anlamı yaşanması muhtemel bir deneyimin hazırlığını yapabilme -bir tür denetleme- üstüne kuruludur; tekrarla yakın ilişkilidir. Tekrarlar benzerlik gösterse de her biri kendine özgüdür. ‘Denemek’ ve ‘incelemek’ anlamları ise sözcüğü denetim ve tekrarla ilgili çağrışımlardan uzaklaştırır; dikkatli bir gözlem yeteneğine, esnek olmaya, icabında kılıktan kılığa girebilmeye tekabül eder. Günümüzdeki kullanımlarını kazanana kadar geçirdiği süreçler ve barındırdığı anlamlar birlikte değerlendirildiğinde, provanın dönüşüme sürekli devam ettiği söylenebilir. Prova yeniden düşünülme ve düzenlenmeye açıktır.

Metehan Özcan’ın Versus Art Project’de gerçekleşen sergisi Prova, Özcan’ın pratiğine geniş bir bakış sunar. Sergi mekânının farkı odalarına yayılan yeni üretimler, sanatçının geçmiş çalışmalarının, başka sanatçılara ait üretimlerin, arşivinin ve İstanbul-Ankara-İzmir dönemlerine ait kişisel izlerin aralarına sızar. 1978 tarihli bir vesikalık, istiflenmiş görseller, bir banyo fayansı, oda anahtarları, otel odası fotoğrafları, anonim mekânlar-tanıdık mekânlar, gizlenmiş hatıralar, geleceğe dair tahayyüller... Prova’da yer alan işlerin ve nesnelerin yan yanadalığı özel ve kamusal olan arasında bir köprü kurar.

Prova bir kişisel sergi olmaktan ziyade Özcan’ın düşünme yöntemlerini açığa çıkartan, sürekli dağılıp yeniden kurulan bir hafıza alanı olarak kurgulanmıştır. Güncel işler ve arşivden çıkanlar, birer referans noktası olarak, sanatçının pratiğinin yeniden yorumlanabilmesine, görünmeyen anlatıların açığa çıkmasına olanak sağlar. Sergi aynı zamanda bir açık atölye olarak da ele alınabilir. Özcan’ın çalışmalarını yürüttüğü odanın mekâna yığıp, üretimini yine sergi alanında devam ettirerek imgenin farklı sunum ve sergilenme biçimlerinin deneyimlendiği bir mekân meydana getirir.

METEHAN ÖZCAN (b.1975, Istanbul)

Metehan Özcan completed his undergraduate education at Bilkent University, Department of Interior Architecture, and completed his master's degree on Visual Communication Design at Bilgi University.

Özcan, who focuses on the ways of living and representation of the modernist space in his works, describes the alienation of people in their environment through the intertwining of the private and the public. Considering memory as the representation of identity, the artist observes cultural codes in his works and opens discussions on ownership and belonging.

Working as a part-time lecturer at various universities, Özcan lives and works in Istanbul.
